Detailed description: This is a musical score for the Alto voice part of the song 'What A Wonderful World'. The score is written on a single treble clef staff in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of six lines of music. The first line starts with a piano (p) dynamic and includes the lyrics 'I see trees of green' and 'red ros-es too'. The second line begins at measure 4 and includes 'I see them bloom', 'for me and you', and 'and I think to my-self'. The third line begins at measure 7 and includes 'What a won-der-ful world' and 'I see skies of blue'. The fourth line begins at measure 11 and includes 'and clouds of white' and 'the bright bless-ed day'. The fifth line begins at measure 13 and includes 'the dark sac-red night', 'and I think to my-self', and 'What a won-der-ful'. The sixth line begins at measure 16 and includes 'world', 'Ah', 'Ah', and 'I see'. The score features various musical notations such as rests, eighth notes, quarter notes, and half notes. There are several triplet markings (indicated by a '3' over a group of notes) and dynamic markings including piano (p) and mezzo-piano (mp). A rehearsal mark 'A' is placed above the staff at measure 16. The lyrics are written below the staff, with horizontal lines indicating the vocal line.
